

IMMEDIATE NOTIFICATIONS TO PUBLIC HEALTH

Attention Doctors:

If you suspect these conditions, please notify the Gold Coast Public Health Unit immediately on 07 5667 3200.

Condition	Notification by clinician
Acute flaccid paralysis	 If you suspect these conditions, notify the Gold Coast Public Health Unit immediately: 07 5667 3200 8:30 am – 5 pm weekdays After hours: 07 3176 4040
Australian bat lyssavirus, potential exposure*
Avian influenza
Ciguatera poisoning
Dengue
Diphtheria
Food or water-borne illness in 2 or more cases
Food or water-borne illness in food handler
Haemolytic uraemic syndrome (HUS) — ALL causes
Haemophilus influenzae type b (invasive) disease
Measles
Meningococcal disease (invasive)
Middle East Respiratory Syndrome
Rabies, potential exposure*
Severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS)
Smallpox

REMEMBER: Don't wait for lab results to notify

*Any bite or scratch, OR any mucous membrane exposure or broken skin exposure to saliva or neural tissue, from either: a bat or flying fox (worldwide, including Australia) OR any terrestrial mammal in a rabies enzootic country (including Bali)