

GP Trainer Workshop: New ways to build your teaching and assessment skills

THURSDAY 27 FEBRUARY 2020 (RSVP Thursday 20 February) | 6.30pm - 9.00pm (dinner will be provided)
Gold Coast Primary Health Network: Level 1, 14 Edgewater Court, Robina 4226

This workshop is for GP trainers of Registrars and Medical Students who wish to develop their skills. This workshop will provide GPs with opportunities for interaction and discussion using 4 table based small group activities relevant to clinical GP medical education.

Come along and join a community of Clinical Medical Educators, who are able to integrate clinical care and teaching and who we deeply value.

Activities will assist GPs to:

- Identify SMART goals & try writing SMART goals for learning
- Evaluate GP Registrar ideas and expectations about clinical training in GP
- Consider Medical Student ideas and expectations on their GP clinical teaching
- Describe University desired activities and assessments in GP placements

Speakers:

- Dr Jane Smith - Head of General Practice Bond
- Dr Lennert Veerman - Acting Head of General Practice Griffith
- Dr Kat McLean - Medical Educator for General Practice Training Queensland
- Dr Mark Morgan - General Practice Bond
- Dr Natasha Yates - General Practice Bond
- Dr Peter Loudon - General Practice Registrar
- Dr Thien Thai - Medical Student Representative

Allocated 4 CPD Activity Points, Activity number 191600 in the RACGP Program for the 2020-22 Triennium.

GPTQ supervisors will earn 2 supervisor credit points by attending this workshop.
