

Call for Nominations: General Practitioner with Special Interest in Aged Care representation on GCHHS Specialist Palliative Care in Aged Care (SPACE) Project Clinical Governance Group

GCPHN in partnership with GCHHS is currently seeking a nomination to fill the following position for the SPACE Project Clinical Governance Group:

- General Practitioner based in General Practice providing services to Residential Aged Care Facilities

The purpose of the meeting is for key members of the Gold Coast Hospital and Health Service and primary care clinicians providing healthcare to residents of aged care facilities to oversee and provide Clinical Governance regarding the development, implementation and monitoring of the Gold Coast Hospital and Health Service (GCHHS) SPACE project.

It is expected the GP representative through their delivery of health care to residents in aged care facilities will be able to provide guidance to ensure the SPACE project aims and objectives are met, these include:

- Support aged care providers to put systems and processes in place that facilitate the provision of palliative care
- Build capacity within RACFs to identify and respond to the palliative care needs of all residents
- Focus on improving access to specialist palliative care within RACFs
- Support activities which clearly align with the new Aged Care Quality Standards
- Are based on available evidence, best practice or learnings from service provision across the health and aged care sectors

The SPACE Project Clinical Governance Group meets monthly for one hour. The GP will be remunerated for attendance in line with GCPHN's Sitting Fees:

The deadline for application submission is: COB, Friday, 22 January 2021.
