

ENHANCED AFTER-HOURS SUPPORT FOR RACF PROJECT INTRODUCES

PallConsult

Palliative Care Workshop

Join experienced palliative care clinicians from PallConsult, Queensland Health and project leads Clinical Nurse Consultants Kelsey Schipp and Siobhan Byers from Residential Aged Care Acute Support Service (RaSS) to improve your clinical skills in providing palliative and end-of-life care for your patients.

Date and Time:

Wednesday 15 Nov, 2023
8.00am to 4.00pm

Venue:

Broadbeach Cultural Centre
Hooker Blvd & Sunshine Blvd
Broadbeach Waters QLD 4218

Room: Auditorium

Who should attend:

Clinical managers,
after-hours supervisors, and educators working in residential aged care

Cost is free and includes catering

Workshop objectives

- Self-care and team care
- End-of-Life Care Framework – clinical processes to inform skills development
- Accessing the Health Provider Portal
- Advance care planning (ACP) – building ACP culture in residential aged care
- Clinical processes in the last 12 months of life
- Recognising dying and the terminal phase, the role of the nurse (SPICT Tool)
- Responding to distressing symptoms of a dying person – nurses role
- Resources to support you, including palliMEDs app (participants to bring tablet or handheld device to download app)
- Navigating the palliative and end-of-life care guidelines for RACFs

Scan or click QR code to RSVP by 8 Nov

PallConsult
Support for clinicians delivering end-of-life care

phn
GOLD COAST
An Australian Government Initiative

Queensland Government