

GCPHN EVENT: Nurse Preceptor Workshop

Thursday 8th February 2024

5.30PM - 8.15PM | Gold Coast Primary Health Network | Dinner Event

General practice registered nurses (RNs) involved in our Clinical Placement program provide valuable learning experiences by exposing students to a variety of clinical proficiencies. To be part of this well-respected team, supervising nurses must complete a Preceptor Training workshop which we strongly encourage supervisors to attend annually and is a great opportunity to network with other RN supervisors. Registered nurses interested in supervising students on clinical placement are also welcome to attend.

The training workshop can count towards CNE points.

The workshop will be covering:

- Preceptorship
- University updates
- Supporting the students learning
- Students goal setting and expectations of the university
- Assessment Tool (ANSAT)
- Workshop – Completing the ANSAT online
- Student issues
- Reflection

Speakers:

- Dr Judith Needham | Senior Lecturer, Director of Professional Practice, School of Nursing and Midwifery, Griffith University
- Karen Carrington | Team Leader Placements Office, Griffith University
- Renee Stone | Lecturer, Clinical Placement Coordinator, Griffith University
- Kaylene Barchetta | Year 1 Phase Lead, Southern Cross University
- Bernadine Romero | Year 3 Phase Lead, Southern Cross University

This will be a face-to-face workshop and Dinner will be provided.

Places are limited – register today to secure your spot.
