Helping healthcare providers stay connected

Join us to discover how this innovative, free national system can enhance how others access your business information and reduce unnecessary data duplication.

Gold Coast Primary Health Network and the Australian Digital Health Agency invite you to a free webinar on using Provider Connect Australia™ (PCA™) - a single place for updating your business information and services, which automatically updates both the National Health Service Directory (NHSD) and the data shared with your other business partners.

Places are limited – register today to secure your spot.
