

Nurse Preceptor Workshop

8 February 2024

What was covered

- What is preceptorship?
- Expectations of preceptors and Students
- Goal setting and SMART Goals
- Student issues
- ANSAT Process and procedures

Learning Outcomes

- Describe the role of a Preceptor supervising student nurses from Griffith University and Southern Cross University School of Nursing - 100% Fully met
- Describe the role of a Preceptor in supporting student nurse learning in a clinical setting. - 100% Fully met
- Discuss student goal setting and expectations of the University - 92% Fully met
- Apply the principles of completing the clinical placement assessment tool (ANSAT) as a measurement of the student nurse's performance in the clinical setting - 92% Fully met
- Please rate the degree your learning needs were met - 92% Entirely Met
- Please rate the relevance of this event to your organisation - 92% Entirely Relevant

Key concepts & knowledge gained:

- Behaviour & learning outcomes
- Ongoing Communication with the University teams
- Guidance with filling the ANSAT & support
- Ensure the student is working within their scope of practice and are working towards completing their goals
- Where to reach out to and how, to help students through their clinical placement.
- Goal setting & reflection for students – SMART Goals & SPROUT
- ANSAT & support
- Clinical Learning Plan
- How to support students and what to do if they are not meeting the criteria. Support available to preceptors to assist in guiding students.
- Resources and more information on how to improve on helping the students

Overall satisfaction with the event was:
85% Excellent
15% Good