

Highlights from 2023 – 2024

- Endometriosis and Pelvic Pain Clinic: 760 clients with official clinic opening in January 2024 by Assistant Minister for Health.
 - Change Futures - Psychological services in RACH: reached 128% of annual target - Clients and their families reported improved emotional well-being, increased social engagement, and enhanced quality of life.
-

Highlights from 2023 – 2024

- Turning Pain into Gain: 100% outcome measurement completion rate; out of 141 clients who exited the program, 139 reported significant improvement.
 - Events: 94 events (more than double 22/23) – attended by 1193 people. 23 Disaster Recovery and Resilience events organised, attended by 386 people.
-

Highlights from 2023 – 2024

- Clinical Placements: 913 medical students placed in General Practice (increase on 509 in 22/23). 145 nursing students placed (increase on 138 in 22/23).
 - COVID-19 and Influenza Campaign – 517,844 impressions and 5,078 link clicks through digital marketing on Meta and Google Ads.
-

Expression of Interest

COPD Quality Improvement activity co-design

- Work with QI project officer to develop and test a new COPD Quality Improvement (QI) activity aiming to improve the clinical management of patients with a diagnosis of COPD and increase use of exacerbation plans.
- Will occur over a 5 - month period
- Representatives from general practice need for the co-design:
 - Practice Manager
 - Practice Nurse
 - General Practitioner
- Must be available to begin the co-design from Monday 14th October 2024
- EOI closes today 9th October 2024 at 5pm

