Optimising Cancer Screening | Updates, Education and Participation Strategies

Dinner Event | Mercure Gold Coast Resort, Palm Meadows Drive Carrara

Gold Coast Primary Health Network (GCPHN) invites all Gold Coast GPs and general practice staff to a clinical education and networking session, providing the latest updates on national cancer screening programs and strategies to enhance cancer screening participation across the region.

Topics include:

- Updates from BreastScreen Queensland, National Cervical Screening Program, National Bowel Cancer Screening Program, and the new Lung Cancer Screening Program launching in July 2025.
- Overview of GCPHN's cancer screening quality improvement and communications initiatives.
- Clinical updates from expert speakers on cancer screening guidelines and best practices.

Presenters:

Guest speakers from BreastScreen Queensland, the National Cervical Screening Program, the National Bowel Cancer Screening Program, and the Lung Cancer Screening Program.

Learning Outcomes:

- Interpret the latest updates across cancer screening programs.
- Identify ways to improve patient participation in cancer screening, including alternative access models and self-collection options.
- Outline how GCPHN's quality improvement and communications initiatives can support screening awareness.
- Assess how the National Cancer Screening Register (NCSR) supports screening programs and improves patient follow-up.

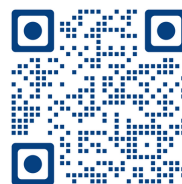

Dinner and registration from 6:00pm. Update from 6:30pm.

Places are limited – register today to secure your spot.
